ON HER WAY HERE

Baltimore Left San Francisco on October 30.

MR. CLEGHORN AGAIN SPEAKS

Says Princess Kaiulani's Visit to Hawaii is Solely for Pleasure.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 30.—The Chronicle today says: The cruiser Baltimore will get away for Honolulu today if the intentions of her commander are carried out. The vessel was for two days "swinging ship" off Red Rock in order to adjust her compasses and she returned yesterday morning to her anchorage off Folsom street wharf.

All the afternoon her crew was busy taking on the last of the supplies for the voyage and with every trip of the launch from the shore to the cruiser, there were some sailors who had deserted the vessel anxious to get back aboard and make their peace with the officers. On one trip the launch had six of the deserters and every one of them was boisterously happy from the effects of bad water front liquor. During the afternoon nearly all the deserters returned to the vessel. They were put on a bread and water diet as a punishment for their insubordination. On Thursday a draft was made on the receiving ship for men to take the places of the deserters and yesterday twenty were sent from the navy yard to fill out the vessel's complement of men. When the deserters returned the cruiser was overcrowded with sailors and the men sent from the receiving ship were turned over to the Oregon.

An order was received from the Navy Department to discharge the Japanese servants and cooks on the vessel before she sailed for the Islands and yesterday some twenty Japanese were sent ashore and Chinese were taken in their places. The order to dismiss the Japanese was based on the opinion of the authorities in Washington that, in case of any possible trouble with Japan or with the Japanese in Honolulu, the presence of so many Japanese on board might be a great detriment to the efficiency of the cruiser.

On the arrival of the Baltimore at Honolulu, Admiral Miller, the commander-in-chief of the Pacific squadron, will hoist his flag on her and she will remain at the Islands until the annexation question is settled.

The Yorktown, which is being held at Honolulu until the arrival of the Baltimore, will sail for San Francisco as soon as the flagship arrives there. She will proceed to the navy yard at Mare Island and be taken out of commission for a thorough overhauling. She has been in active service for nearly nine years. The gunboat Wheeling, which was hurried out to Honolulu a few weeks ago, will return to San Francisco, when she will be given her official acceptance trial and then proceed to Alaska.

SENATOR MORGAN BETTER.

Belief That It Will Be a Week Before He Can Travel.

SAN DIEGO, October 28.—Senator Morgan is slowly regaining his strength. Dr. P. J. Parker, who has been attending the senator since the latter arrived here Monday, made the following statement at 6 o'clock this evening: "Senator Morgan has been free from fever for over 36 hours. He is recovering, but must remain quiet for some days yet. I do not think he will be able to travel for a week, and perhaps not then. There is not a word of truth in the report that he has had any symptoms of apoplexy. His trouble is due to the injury of his knee, which occurred while he was in Hawaii. It took on a form of erysipelas." He arrived in San Diego on the 25th and proceeded to Coronado. The senator was not feeling well, and consequently it was not deemed advisable to tender him the reception that had been arranged at the hotel del Coronado in his honor.

WILL NOT TALK POLITICS.

Mr. Cleghorn Reiterates His Previous Statement.

The Chronicle of October 28 says: The Princess Kaiulani is not talking politics during her stay in the city. Her father, A. S. Cleghorn, who has been her constant companion during the past two years and who is now accompanying her back to Honolulu, declined to permit his daughter to be interviewed yesterday, and in doing so declared that she was acting with rare discretion in holding herself aloof from political discussions and entanglements.

"We must most firmly decline to discuss politics," he said when seen yesterday. "As a matter of fact, the return of the Princess to Honolulu has no political significance, and she is taking no interest in the political affairs of Hawaii. She has been absent from home over eight years. She left when a child of 13 years. She is now a woman, and it has been thought wise that she should return home that her people and friends might see her. We have formulated no plans for the future. For the present we will reside quietly at our home near Honolulu. We will not go to Washington to oppose the annexation of the Islands when Congress meets. The princess entered her formal protest against annexation three years ago. That conveyed her sentiments on the subject to the United States Government and that is the only action she will take in the matter.

"While the sentiments of the princess on the annexation question are well known, she must refuse to discuss the matter at this time. She is adopting a course that can antagonize neither political party in the Islands, and in doing so she is acting wisely. As for myself, I do not believe that the annexation of the Islands would be a good thing either for the Hawaiian people or for the United States. The Islands are best off under an independent government. American influence predominates there and always will, whether the Islands are annexed or not, and for that reason there need be no fear that any other power will seek to acquire the territory should the United States fail to do so."

Mr. Cleghorn said that the princess was preserving a profound silence on the matter of her interest in the Crown Lands of Hawaii, as on all other matters political. Speaking for her, he said there could be no doubt but that the title to the Crown Lands remained vested in the royal family, since they had been handed down from Kamehameha I as private possessions in no wise connected with or belonging to the Government. But as to the plans of the princess for regaining possession of them he would say nothing.

The princess and her father will remain at the Occidental until the departure of the steamship Australia on her next trip, when they will leave for the Islands.

NEW SCHOONER LAUNCHED.

She Will Enter the Hawaiian Trade for the Present.

EUREKA, October 28.—At H. D. Dendixsen's shipyard this afternoon the three masted schooner christened Mildred was launched. The Mildred which is the third vessel launched there this season, has a net tonnage of 411.78 and carrying capacity of 550,000 feet of lumber. The managing owner is Albert Meyer of San Francisco. The vessel will go into the Hawaiian Islands and trade. She has been chartered by J. R. Hanify & Co. of San Francisco, and will take a cargo of redwood to Honolulu on her maiden voyage.

Captain William Kindlen, formerly of the schooner Alice, will command the new vessel.

Construction of Warships.

LONDON, October 23.—The general disposition to increase naval armaments can be gauged by the fact that eighty-seven warships are building in Great Britain alone. They aggregate a displacement of 318,612 tons. Of these eighty-seven warships thirty-four go to foreign governments.

GEORGE IS DEAD

Candidate for Mayor Passes Away on Eve of Battle.

HIS SON PLACED ON THE TICKET

An Heir Born to the Cleverlands. Weyler Prepared to Sall for Spain.

NEW YORK, October 29.—Henry George died suddenly today of apoplexy. It came to the citizens of Greater New York, already overwrought in this unparalleled campaign, with a shock, and created a profound sensation. The canvass was at a standstill for several hours while new lines were formed. But not even such a political tragedy as the sudden death of a brave and popular candidate, such as Henry George, brought on by his tremendous exertions, could long halt this greatest civic battle of the century. Thus it was tonight the fight was in full swing again. Henry George Jr. was running for Mayor as his father's successor, and political observers were getting back to their moorings again and beginning to take a calm survey of the situation.

It was known that George was in feeble health. It was also known that in his assaults upon Judge Van Wyck and Croker on the one hand and General Tracy and Senator Platt on the other, he was overtaxing his strength. But no one was prepared for the bolt from the blue which fell upon the city early in the day, when extras announced George's death at dawn.

The end was peaceful, and he died without pain. This man of mighty brain and undaunted courage was physically frail, and the strain of an exciting campaign requiring speech-making at points many miles apart, night after night, was more than nature could stand. He kept it up to the end, and only a few hours before the dread messenger cried halt. Henry George had addressed enthusiastic audiences in three of the towns of the borough of Queens and a still larger assemblage in an up town hall here.

He spoke at Whitestone at 8 o'clock and made a speech at College Point and Flushing before returning to New York to speak at the Central Opera house. Mrs. George went with him. All the halls in which he spoke were filled and at College Point and at Flushing crowds were turned away.

Not long after reaching his hotel he retired. It was about 3:30 o'clock when Mrs. George was awakened. She found Mr. George sitting in an armchair.

Mrs. George at once grew anxious as to her husband's condition. Mr. George gradually grew incoherent and lapsed into semi-consciousness.

A call was sent to Dr. Kelly of 115 East Fifty-ninth street and he came without delay. Mr. George was still unconscious. All efforts to revive him failed. Without a sign of recognition to those around him he passed peacefully away at 4:45 o'clock.

CLEVELAND HAS A SON.

It Is Said That His Name Will Probably Be Grover.

PRINCETON, (N. J.), October 29.—Grover Cleveland had a busy time today receiving telegrams of congratulation for his new-born heir. Mrs. Cleveland and the child are doing well, and the child promises to fulfill the ambitious expectation of the undergraduates, who have him scheduled for several of Princeton's championship football teams in years to come.

The nurse of the three little girls was asked today what the boy was to be called, and she said Grover would probably be its name, but Mrs. Cleveland wished to name it after her father.

NEW YORK, October 29.—Ex-President Cleveland, in his Princeton home tonight, received the following message from Queen Victoria:

"WINDSOR CASTLE—To Hon. Grover Cleveland, ex-President of the United States, Trenton, N. J.: Felicitations on this day, the day of your happiness, and may your heir bring you joy.
"VICTORIA."

EX-QUEEN STILL HAS HOPE.

Denial of the Story That She Has Abducted in Favor of Kaiulani.

WASHINGTON, October 22.—With reference to reports to the effect that former Queen Liliuokalani had formally abdicated in favor of Princess Kaiulani, the ex-queen in person gave the following authorized statement: "There is no truth in any report that she has abdicated. No official action has been taken during the meeting of Kaiulani with her. The question of politics did not pass their lips. Kaiulani came from New York to see her aunt before going to San Francisco, and left this afternoon for that city, where she will stay a week. Such reports are spread by her enemies with a view to injuring her."

The foregoing was dictated by the ex-queen.

OPINION OF MR. DAVIES.

He Believes Hawaiian Government Is on Wrong Track.

Mr. T. H. Davies is in San Francisco. In the course of an interview with a Chronicle reporter on the visit of Princess Kaiulani he talks of annexation. The Chronicle says: Mr. Davies does not hesitate to say that he is not in favor of the annexation of the islands. He does not, however, believe that a monarchy is preferable to the present form of government.

"The Dole Government," he said, "is presided over by excellent men, and is all right except in one particular. That one particular is the annexation plank. That is a thorn in the sides of the native population, and if it could be expunged there would be no serious objection from any quarter to the present form of government."

LOOK FOR SETTLEMENT.

L. A. Thurston Says Controversy Will Soon Be Over.

NEW YORK, October 25.—A Herald Washington dispatch says: "As a result of the conciliatory attitude lately adopted by Japan toward Hawaii," said Judge Lorin A. Thurston today, "the immigration controversy between the two Governments will, I confidently expect, be submitted to arbitration at an early date."

Thurston was formerly Minister from Hawaii to the United States, and is now in charge of the affairs of that Government in the absence of Minister Hatch. Thurston left tonight for the West.

"Japan," he said, "in her latest note formally specifies the issues she is willing to arbitrate. The central issue is whether the enforcement of the laws passed by the Hawaiian Legislature regarding the admission of immigrants is in conflict with the rights given her by treaties existing between the two Governments. Hawaii has agreed to submit to arbitration the points suggested by Japan, except in some minor details.

"Japan, in her first note, suggested that the King of Belgium be asked to act as arbitrator. He is not satisfactory, however, to Hawaii. The Dole Government has suggested to Japan the appointment of a tribunal consisting of three members, two of whom shall be appointed by the respective Governments and the third to be chosen by the two thus selected."
